About the EAC

The Los Angeles Metro EAC is composed of employer volunteers representing a cross section of business and industry. The EAC was developed to promote a stronger partnership between the California EDD and the business community. Its commitment is to assist employers in conducting their business more effectively and efficiently, to provide information on employment-related issues, and to enhance the communication between EDD and the private sector.

This EAC is a member of the California Employer Advisory Council.

For more information about EAC membership, meetings, or this seminar, call Maria Lou at (213) 808-1759 or e-mail Hong-Fang.Lou@edd.ca.gov.

Speaker(s)

Robert Wenzel

Robert Wenzel is a partner in the Cerritos office of Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo, which is one of the leading labor and employment law firms in California. He specializes in employment law and defense of management in personnel and labor relations matters such as sexual harassment, discrimination, wrongful termination, and wage and hour issues.

Mr. Wenzel will address various labor relation matters involving state and federal wage and hour laws, wrongful discharge, employment discrimination, employee discipline and termination, legislative developments, personnel policies, and other timely issues.

Mr. Wenzel formerly served as vice president and general counsel for American West Directory and human resources manager and legal counsel for the Western Region of GTE Directories Corporation. He is a member of the State Bar of California, a past President of Professionals in Human Resources Association (PIHRA), and has served on the board of directors of the Employer's Group. He is a well-known speaker to various organizations around the country on labor and employment issues. He has conducted hundreds of training sessions, briefings, and seminars and lectured at numerous conventions. He was also awarded the Excellence in Human Resources Award and the President's Award by PIHRA.
